

MASTER BUILDERS
SOUTH AUSTRALIA

— CODE OF ETHICS —

Members of the Master Builders Association are bound by a CODE OF ETHICS based upon the following principles:

- To conduct business with honesty and integrity
- To employ the highest levels of business skills and technical knowledge
- To execute building work using good workmanship and materials
- To act impartially and objectively when advising on matter of fact arising from building technology
- To assist, wherever possible, in the training of future skills base of the industry

President

Chief Executive Officer